

Exhibit 6502, MEALS IN EMERGENCIES OR AFTER HOURS (6400)

(June 2000)

CIRCUMSTANCES	FEEDING ARRANGEMENTS	FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY
Crews working an emergency from an incident base/camp	Provide the same fire meal given to other personnel	CDF
Crews working an emergency from their camp on a regular work day	Provide regular CDC food ration	CDC
	Fire meal requested by Incident Commander	CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CDC on AO-71
Crews working an emergency from their camp and leaving or arriving at least one hour before or after normal work hours	CDC will feed an in-camp fire meal	CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CDC on AO-71
Crews traveling to or from an emergency	Provide meal in restaurant. Arrange through ECC in advance. Isolate crews, limit menu selection. (Must have adequate custodial coverage)	CDF - SPO or DPV
	Fast food - eat at rest stop or park	CDF - SPO or DPV
	Fire meal at another conservation camp with advance arrangements	CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CDC on AO-71
Conservation camp used as incident base/camp	Provide fire meals for all inmates	CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CDC on AO-71
Conservation camp used as a staging area for stand-by crews	Provide fire meals for all inmates	CDF - Purchase food or reimburse CDC on AO-71
Note: When providing meals in a camp at other than normal meal times as much advance notice and information concerning meal needs should be given, normally through regular dispatch channels. Regular CDF and other agency personnel may be provided meals in camp along with inmate crews if such meal provision is expedient and desirable.

(see Table of Contents)